

Peace Boat Disaster Relief: Terms and Conditions for Volunteers

Revised on 4th October, 2019

1. Definition of Volunteers

The Peace Boat Disaster Relief (PBV) defines volunteers as people who participate in the project through their own free will.

2. Requirements and Registration Process for Volunteers

- i. Those who are in the scope of volunteers defined above:
- ii. Should fill in the "Volunteer Registration Form" and submit it to the PBV.
- iii. All volunteers are requested to submit an Agreement Form and purchase Volunteer Insurance prior to the on-site activities.
- iv. Minors are requested to submit an agreement form signed by the guardian.

3. Working hours

- i. In principle, any voluntary activities shall be carried out between 8 am and 9 pm.
- ii. Please request permission from a project leader if any activities need to be implemented outside the designated work hours.

4. Prohibitions

The following acts are strictly prohibited, and the volunteer registration of those who fail to comply shall be canceled.

- Promotional activities for political, business or religious group interests.
- Acts that do not respect the personal information compliance program (Such as misuse and disclosure of personal information).
- All acts of harassment, including but not limited to, sexual harassment and violence, which could cause harm to other volunteers or the PBV.

5. Further Terms and Conditions

- i. In principle, volunteers are responsible for any accident, injury or illness caused to themselves during the activities.
- ii. In the event of a car accident while carrying items or persons, the volunteer who was driving shall take responsibility. All volunteers who drive vehicles should submit an "Agreement Form for Vehicle Use", before driving.
- iii. Separate registration is required for volunteers who wish to become "Peace Boat Volunteer Staff", in preparation for the Peace Boat Cruise.

These are the terms and conditions required for volunteers who wish to participate in relief activities organized by the PBV. Please proceed to the volunteer registration after you have read and agreed to the above terms.
